

Welcome to the Lewis Army Museum!

1804-1806: Lewis and Clark Expedition	1859: The Pig War	1858: Medicine Creek Treaty Signed	1917-1918: U.S. in World War One	1941-1945: U.S. in World War Two	1950-1953: Korean War	1965-1975: Vietnam War	1990-1991: First Gulf War	2001-Now: Global War on Terror
								★ You are here

About the Lewis Army Museum building

- Originally called the Red Shield Inn and was a hotel for people on the base.
- Made during World War One
- Run by the Salvation Army until the Army took over in 1921
- Now a museum that teaches people about the Army and the Pacific Northwest

What you will see in the Museum

- Artifacts from the past
- Displays showing how people dressed and lived
- Vehicles that Soldiers used
- Maps where famous battles took place
- Tanks
- A Helicopter

